Description

Michele Catti--Palermo 1855-1914--"Countryside with a Split Tree, a Shepherdess, and Her Sheep." Oil on canvas mounted on wood, dating from the painter's naturalist period, between 1880 and 1890. The technique used to render the autumn branches in a melancholic atmosphere is unmistakable; the true subject of the landscape is the tree split by lightning at the center of the scene.
