Description

Lalique France wheat-ear dish, Lucerne model, mid-20th-century Art DecoCreated by the Lalique crystal works in France in the mid-20th century, this platter is adorned with a geometric and organic design of wheat ears, a natural evolution of Art Deco design principles.The Lucerne model features a classic circular crystal platter shape, with the wheat ears converging toward the center like a whirlwind, accented by stems engraved in a curve toward the center--a hallmark of Modernism.In very good overall condition; some signs of wear (scratches, scuffs) are present, attesting to its use and authenticity.Fast and careful shipping to France, Europe, and worldwide.Dimensions-> Diameter: 33 cm-> Depth: 1.5 cm-> Weight: 1.1 kg
