Description

Pair of chiseled and gilded bronze candlesticks - Restoration period, circa 1820-1830. An elegant pair of finely chiseled and richly gilded bronze candlesticks from the Restoration period, tastefully echoing the decorative motifs of the Louis XVI style. Each candlestick rests on a circular base adorned with radiating water leaves and beaded friezes. The shaft, decorated with fluting and stylized plant motifs, supports an elegant gadrooned vase topped by a beaded-rimmed candleholder. The set displays harmonious proportions and high-quality craftsmanship, characteristic of French productions from the first third of the 19th century. The antique gilding, which is exceptionally well-preserved, boasts a magnificent patina and retains all its luster,
