Description

Exceptional Four-Panel Victorian Mahogany Screen England, circa 1860. Elegant four-panel Victorian screen, crafted from high-quality mahogany and dating from around 1860. It features brass hinges and rests on six brass casters, allowing for easy movement and great flexibility in use. Each panel is upholstered with a richly woven fabric featuring an exotic design depicting pink flamingos, cranes, tropical foliage, and ornamental garlands. The contrast between the warmth of the mahogany and the refined colors of the fabric gives the piece a remarkable decorative presence, typical of the taste and craftsmanship of the Victorian era.
