Description

GEORGI SHISHKIN (born in 1948) "Russian Dreams - Sweet Morning," 2008 Pastel on paper, signed lower left. A truly beautiful composition by Russian painter Gueorgui Chichkine, a major figure in Russian contemporary art, known for his famous series "Russian Dreams", which blends poetry, spirituality, and the refinement of pastel. The work depicts two young women whose faces radiate gentleness and mystery, bathed in the dreamlike atmosphere characteristic of the artist. The pastel technique, which Shishkin has favored since the 1980s, allows him to create effects of light and transparency with great delicacy. His work has been featured in numerous international exhibitions, including in Monaco, Cannes, Auvers-sur-Oise, and at the Russian Museum in Saint Petersburg. Work cataloged on
