Description

An exceptional oil painting on canvas, depicting the Holy Child in the robe of the "Pantocrator," seated on a cloud. An emblematic work in the visual catalog of Francesco SOLIMENA, which summarizes the best of his compositional and pictorial qualities, this splendid painting has been authenticated by one of the most authoritative expert of Italian painting between the 17th and 18th centuries, Professor Ferdinando ARISI, who in his expertise recognized without any doubt the hand of the master. Due to its excellent level of execution, superb state of preservation, and the clear authorship of this important artist, the painting is considered museum-worthy.
