Description

A charming three-light chandelier dating from the 1950s, featuring a gilded and burnished iron frame adorned with elegant floral motifs.The decoration is particularly rich and refined: numerous pendants in clear and antique pink crystal alternate with small porcelain floral elements, creating a light and luminous ensemble with a romantic flair. The sinuous arms and embossed leaves lend movement to the composition, while the cascade of crystals adds sparkle and vibrancy to the whole.Ideal for a bedroom, entryway, powder room, or a space furnished in shabby chic, Provençal, or eclectic style, this chandelier is an elegant decorative piece capable of enhancing even small spaces.In good overall condition, with normal signs of wear consistent with its age. Dimensions: Height: 65
