Description

Copper-plated brass vase by Luc Lanel for Christofle, Art Deco style, circa 1930. Elegant copper-plated brass vase with geometric engraving featuring stylized motifs inspired by Art Deco. This piece is attributed to Luc Lanel for the prestigious Christofle house. The vase features a beautiful ovoid shape that tapers slightly toward the neck, adorned with a chevron pattern and engraved geometric motifs that highlight the warm sheen of the copper. The base bears the "Christofle" hallmark as well as a model number. This piece perfectly illustrates the revival of French decorative arts from 1925 to 1935, a period during which Luc Lanel created several iconic designs for Christofle, intended for the modern interiors of the time. Highly decorative, this vase will fit equally well in an Art Deco
