"I know, having heard it said from time to time, that some people find my sculpture very dark. It certainly is at first glance, but if you take the time to look again, a new feeling may emerge. I hope my work invites us to accept ourselves as we are and protects us from the excessive desire to hide from ourselves. It highlights the beauty of the traces of time. Everyone can see themselves reflected in it, as in a mirror, if they wish, if they are ready to see themselves there." Marc Petit
