Description

Elegant set of six porcelain containers. The containers have a fairly linear shape, with a lid to seal the food inside. Each container features a purple flower decoration and a Czech inscription describing the contents inside, such as salt, sugar, flour, pepper, coffee, and rice. The bottom also features the factory mark with a crown and the inscription "Czechoslovakia." This is a tasteful and refined set of kitchen containers, capable of adding a touch of class to any space.

Czech-Slovakian manufacture from the 1930s. Dimensions: H x W 19 x 11cm
