Description

Small Louis XVI-style mahogany and mahogany veneer chest of drawers from the late 18th century, featuring three small drawers on the front with drop-down handles.The top is made of veined gray marble; note that there is an old restoration on the marble that is difficult to see in the photographs.The front legs are rounded and fluted, and the marble top follows this shape with rounded corners.It rests on four sheathed legs ending in a shoe-shaped base.This chest of drawers bears a stamp: F. Pignot.It has been re-varnished and is in very good original condition.Please note: keys are missing.
