Description

A beautiful game table made of precious wood veneer and featuring rich marquetry. The folding tabletop reveals an interior that was once lined with a green game cloth, now missing. The rim is adorned with gilded bronze and rests on four fluted legs joined by an elegant X-shaped crossbar centered around a covered gilded bronze vase. The inlaid decoration on the tabletop displays particularly meticulous craftsmanship inspired by the prestigious designs of the Napoleon III era. French work from the early 20th century. Condition: Structure in very good condition. Beautiful marquetry. The inner playing mat is missing but can be easily replaced. Minor signs of wear.
