Description

Contemporary patinated bronze sculpture depicting a stylized female torso, created by Spanish artist José Luis Casasola.This composition elegantly combines the sensuality of the female form with the mineral power of natural stone, creating a particularly harmonious contrast. The sculpture rests on a black marble base and bears the artist's plaque as well as the number 146/2500, corresponding to a limited edition.Characteristic of Casasola's work, this piece stands out for its clean lines and contemporary aesthetic, making it a high-quality decorative piece for a modern interior or a collection of 20th-century sculpture.Height: 32 cm
