Description

From the first half of the 19th century by Maison Cardeilhac, a charming set of 11 fruit and dessert knives with vermeil blades and ferrules and mother-of-pearl handles. The capital-shaped ferrules are adorned with pearls at the base and feature a design of fine fluting, gadroons, and heart-shaped motifs. The gold, polished to a high sheen on the raised areas and finished with an "amati" patina in the recesses, perfectly highlights the decoration on each ferrule. The mother-of-pearl displays a multitude of iridescent reflections that shift between white, gray, green, and pink... depending on the light. Restoration Era - Charles X. Each blade bears the "vieillard" hallmarks with a head facing right, the number 1 on the right (1st Paris fineness standard), and a circular head of Ceres facing left (Paris gross guarantee hallmark): 1819-1838 + the hallmark of the master silversmith "Cardeilhac."

"Cardeilhac" hallmark in full, with a crowned Cross of the Legion of Honor and a crescent below. Length: 19.8 cm per knife Total weight of the set: 464 g Good condition. The knives are very sturdy. Micro-scratches and slight signs of wear, stains. A small chip at the end of one handle, and tiny hair-like imperfections on another handle--neither of which affects the knife's sturdiness (see photos).
