Description

Silver and Silver Vermeil Malachite Table This rare and important center table is a masterpiece of fine craftsmanship. The tabletop features a refined malachite mosaic with distinctive concentric green veins. The frame is crafted from silver and silver vermeil, hallmarked 800. The central column is embellished with embossed floral decorations and stone inlays. The circular, tapered base faithfully echoes the geometric malachite patterns of the tabletop. The design evokes the splendor of 19th-century imperial and Russian furnishings. A one-of-a-kind collectible work of art, unique for its historical significance, complexity, and precious materials. A truly rare table
Dimensions: 80 x 100 x 100 cm
