Classical Greek Bust In Glazed Terracotta, Italy, Mid-20th Century

1 350 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Terracotta

Description

A bust in the classical Greek style, made of glazed terracotta in Italy in the mid-20th century. Inspired by the sculptural traditions of ancient Greece, this bust depicts an idealized figure with harmonious features, refined proportions, and the serene expression characteristic of classical art.The sculpture stands out for its glazed terracotta surface, which accentuates the depth of the modeling and gives it a rich, luminous finish. The combination of a classical subject and traditional Italian craftsmanship results in a decorative object of remarkable charm and sophistication.Carefully sculpted, the bust features finely detailed facial features, flowing hair, and balanced proportions reminiscent of the famous marble portraits of antiquity. The glazed finish gives it a unique visual quality, creating

Dealer

Florin Antiques
Meubles et Objets d'art du XVIIIe et XIXeme
Tel : 0034 671 362 406
Mobile : 0034 671 362 406

PASEO RECOLETOS 31
Madrid 28004

subtle reflections that highlight the sculpture's contours.Its generous dimensions and timeless aesthetic make it an ideal decorative piece for a library, entryway, gallery, winter garden, or a collection of classically inspired works of art.A refined example of Italian decorative sculpture that brilliantly combines the elegance of classical antiquity with the craftsmanship of the mid-20th century.Origin:ItalyPeriod:Mid-20th centuryMaterial:Glazed terracottaDimensions:Height: 50 cmWidth: 40 cmDepth: 30 cmCondition:Very good condition. Slight signs of wear due to age and use. Well-preserved glazed surface with excellent decorative detail.Keywords:Florin Antiques