Description

230A gorgeous little portable sewing kit made of vermeil and enamel. It consists of a rectangular box entirely guilloché with fine parallel lines dotted with points and scales. The hinged lid is enameled in a beautiful translucent pale green with a thin border of opaque white enamel. The vermeil interior features two compartments, one of which contains a holder for sewing thread. A small hook in the lid holds a pack of eye needles. An eyelet allowed this sewing kit to be attached to a chatelaine or, in a very modern way, worn as a long necklace. The set is hallmarked: 925 for the silver fineness. Double weevil: French import hallmark. A superb little sewing kit, in a charming and very rare design, enhanced by this beautiful green enamel. 5.1 x 2.3 cm 0.8 mm high 22.8 grams gross weight Very good condition.
