Description

Louis XV-period walnut game table, 18th-century craftsmanship. It rests on four richly molded, arched legs, ending in delicate carved feet adorned with stylized acanthus leaves. The scalloped apron features a drawer at the front, adorned with a brass knob. The rectangular top, with rounded corners forming recesses designed to hold game pieces, cards, or small gaming accessories, is covered with a petit point tapestry featuring a polychrome floral design in the style of the 18th century.
