Description

This is an 18-karat gold and silver ring featuring a rectangular domed blue glass stone adorned with a fleur-de-lis set with rose-cut diamonds. The entire piece is surrounded by old-cut diamonds, creating a striking contrast between the brilliance of the stones and the depth of the intense blue.The heraldic motif of the fleur-de-lis gives this ring a unique presence. French craftsmanship from the late 19th century.Eagle's head hallmark and master's mark visible.Very good overall condition.Gross weight: 6.2 g.
