Description

A plaster bust depicting Athena, created in Italy in the 19th century and inspired by the famous sculptures of Classical Antiquity. Athena, the Greek goddess of wisdom, strategy, justice, and the arts, was one of the most revered deities of the ancient world and remains one of the most enduring symbols of intelligence and civilization. The bust depicts the goddess with her characteristic classical features, noble expression, and finely detailed helmet--attributes that identify her as the divine protector of Athens and the patroness of wisdom and knowledge. The sculptor has skillfully captured the serenity, dignity, and authority traditionally associated with Athena, creating a work of remarkable presence and refinement. Crafted in plaster, the sculpture reflects the academic traditions of the
