Description

An elegant set of five Baccarat crystal champagne coupes from the highly desirable "Burgos" pattern, showcasing the exceptional craftsmanship and timeless refinement for which the famous French crystal manufacturer is renowned. These beautifully proportioned coupes feature a wide flared bowl resting on a faceted stem and a finely cut starburst foot, creating a sophisticated silhouette that is both decorative and functional. The Burgos pattern is distinguished by its striking geometric decoration, composed of deeply cut diamond-shaped facets that encircle the lower portion of the bowl. This sculptural motif captures and reflects light beautifully, producing the remarkable brilliance and sparkle associated with fine Baccarat crystal. The combination of clean lines, sharp cuts, and balanced proportions gives these glasses a refined Art Deco-inspired aesthetic while remaining timeless enough to complement both traditional and contemporary interiors. Each coupe bears the Baccarat acid-etched signature on the underside, confirming its authenticity. Ideal for serving champagne, sparkling wine, cocktails, or elegant desserts, these glasses also make a beautiful display piece within a collection of fine French crystal. Presented as a matching set of five, these Baccarat Burgos champagne coupes offer an excellent opportunity to acquire a sophisticated example of 20th-century French crystal craftsmanship from one of the world's most prestigious crystal houses.
