Description

It's as if you were walking into this interior design shop in Deauville in 1965 and buying this lamp brand-new. With its base made in the Faubourg Saint-Antoine and its vintage lampshade custom-made in a nearby workshop. The materials exude finesse and elegance. There are minor imperfections. But don't forget that we're 60 years later, even though the lampshade has been stored in its packaging all these years.
