Description

New oil on panel, signed lower left by Philippe Albin De Buncey (1905-1978), a French painter known for his rural scenes, animal paintings, and depictions of farm life. This composition depicts two powerful draft horses being led along a path bordering a river, in the peaceful atmosphere of the French countryside. The artist sensitively captures the quiet strength of the animals, while the soft light and reflections on the water lend depth and harmony to the composition. A work of fine quality, characteristic of his body of work dedicated to rural life. Panel dimensions: 26 x 46 cm Dimensions with frame: 45 x 65 cm The artwork is in good condition and presented in its elegant gilded frame. Shipping within France: EUR30
