

PROANTIC

LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

---

Luigi Moretti, View Of The Rialto Market, Oil On Canvas, 74x60 Cm

2 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Length : 60 cm.

Height : 74 cm.

| Description |
|-------------|
|-------------|

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Luigi Moretti (Venice, 1884 - 1950) View of the Rialto Market Oil on canvas, 74×60 cm; with frame 91.5×79 cm. Signed in red lower right. Metal plaque with the artist's name on the frame. The painting depicts the Rialto Market with the bell tower of San Giacomo di Rialto in the background, stalls selling flowers, fruit, and vegetables, and a lively crowd of vendors and shoppers. The brushwork is loose and impasto-like, in the Post-Impressionist style, with evident textural layers in the floral arrangements and awnings. The palette is dominated by greens, reds, and pearlescent grays in diffused light, typical of the lagoon. On the reverse: label from "La Galerie d'Art" in Mulhouse and Strasbourg (no. 5247) with a handwritten note identifying the artist as "painter of genre scenes, portraits, |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

| Dealer |
|--------|
|--------|

Zogia

Antiquites et objets d'art

Tel : 0039 328 217 0265

Venice 30038

and landscapes, born in Venice" and noting his membership in the Société Nationale des Beaux-Arts and the Salon des Indépendants. Second label with the title "Marché de Rialto / Venise." Two small restorations on the verso, which do not compromise the obverse. Luigi Moretti exhibited regularly in Paris from 1911, and his Venetian views are documented in major European auction houses, including Christie's London and Leclere Paris. One of the most characteristic subjects in his body of work. Contemporary carved and gilded frame.