Description

Here is a table design that has become, in recent years, iconic of the design of the 1960s and 1970s. This Danish Scandinavian piece is characterized by its practicality, sleek design, and meticulous craftsmanship. Without the extension leaf, this beautiful table measures 120 cm in diameter, and with the extension leaf, it is 180 cm long--ideal for a meal for four or a family gathering of up to 8 people. In fact, this model is made of solid teak, not veneer. This table is in excellent structural and cosmetic condition. Here, then, is a piece of furniture that's right on trend.
