Description

Rare Wedgwood Jasperware Commemorative Bowl - 1991 London Economic Summit - Made in England An elegant commemorative Jasperware porcelain bowl from the prestigious English manufacturer Wedgwood, crafted in its famous sky-blue hue, emblematic of the company's historic productions. The center of the design features a finely executed commemorative motif in relief and gilding, depicting the official logo of the 1991 London Economic Summit, a major diplomatic and economic event bringing together the world's leading international powers. The motif, accented with gilded details, provides a refined contrast and highlights the historical significance of this summit. The border is understated and elegant, allowing the perfectly balanced central composition--typical of
