Description

A lovely, large vase with a lakeside scene featuring mountains by Paul Nicolas, from the Saint-Louis glassworks. This beautiful piece, bearing Paul Nicolas's signature, is characterized by its finesse and consistently high quality; Look at the engraving of the trees, the lake, the little boat, and even those Alpine mountains in the background--what a masterpiece! Everything is etched with acid, featuring beautiful, vivid colors in shades of red on a pale yellow background. In perfect condition, 35 cm tall, signed "D'argental"; this piece was crafted in Saint-Louis based on a design by Paul Nicolas, circa 1925. A sublime vase, of truly remarkable finesse, as always with this talented glassmaker. And such beautiful colors!
