Description

Large Murano glass pendant lamp from the 1960s-1970s. A very beautiful Italian "fazzoletto" (handkerchief) pendant lamp, crafted from two types of glass by La Murrina. In excellent overall condition, with electrical components in very good working order. Note the great elegance of this floral-style lamp, which combines opaque and transparent glass. A technical feat that adds depth and softness through its large white inclusions. You can vary the lighting by choosing either a white or yellow bulb. The lamp features a very stylish black border. A highly decorative centerpiece lamp, 65 cm in diameter, which creates a striking visual impact thanks to its size and decorative qualities. Delivery available in France and worldwide via a professional, specialized carrier. Invoice and certificate
