Description

Yomoud Turkmen Rug, 162 cm x 213 cm, Hand-knotted wool, second half of the 19th century, between 1860 and 1900 Artist: Yomud Wool rug from the nomadic and semi-nomadic Yomud Turkmen tribe. Native to Turkmenistan or Uzbekistan, regions inhabited by these peoples. This carpet from the second half of the 19th century is in good condition, showing some wear due to its age. The natural colors are typical of the Yomouds: orange, black, white, purple, and raspberry. Our rug features a characteristic of these antique rugs: the kilim band folded inward, known as the "alam." It serves to protect the beginning of the rug, while the other end is finished with fringes. The geometric design consists of a half-diamond pattern covered with numerous stylized flowers. Two large panels,
