Edwardian Royal Worcester Blue Scale Porcelain Dish, 1901

400 EUR

Signature : Worcester
Period : 20th century
Condition : Parfait état
Material : Ceramic
Length : 26 cm
Width : 19 cm
Height : 4 c,

Description

An elegant Royal Worcester Blue Scale dessert dish dating to 1901. Executed in fine bone china, it reflects the factory's celebrated revival of eighteenth-century Worcester decoration during the Edwardian period.
The scalloped oval form is decorated with a rich cobalt Blue Scale ground, rococo gilding and finely painted reserves depicting exotic birds, butterflies and insects. Pattern 2525 belongs to a prestigious group of Blue Scale designs inspired by the finest Worcester productions of the Dr Wall era.
The quality of the painting recalls the work of celebrated Worcester artists such as George Johnson, while the combination of cobalt, gilding and naturalistic decoration creates exceptional visual impact.

Dealer

Gillers Antiques
Specialists in 19th-century European silverware, porcelain and décor
Mobile : +44 (0) 7341 404636

Buntingford SG9 0PY

A highly decorative and collectible example of Royal Worcester Blue Scale production, combining historical inspiration, exceptional craftsmanship and rich gilding. Authentic early twentieth-century examples of this pattern represent some of the finest Edwardian bone china produced by Royal Worcester and remain greatly admired by collectors today.

Dimensions:

Length 26 cm

Width 19 cm

Height 4 cm

Weight 495 g

Condition:

Small areas of wear to the decoration in two places. In otherwise excellent antique condition. Please study the accompanying photographs carefully as they form an integral part of this description. If you have any questions, we will be happy to answer them. The item will be shipped with full tracking and insurance. It is important to note that shipping costs include labour, packaging and postage.