Description

Of remarkable quality, this precious box features intricate marquetry on its slightly domed lid, edged with bronze. The decorative motifs--hexagons incorporating triangular mother-of-pearl inlays and satin-finished gold adorned with a double braided border edged in ebony--display great finesse and richness. The rim, crafted from fine rosewood, highlights the exquisite craftsmanship and the opulence of the decoration. Complete with its keys, this beautiful Napoleon III box is sure to captivate with its elegance; it features a stamped varnish finish and is in very good original condition. A high-quality decorative piece from the mid-19th century.
