

18th-century Dutch Cabinet

5 200 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Prévoir restauration

Description

Beautiful Dutch cabinet with marquetry veneer on an oak frame, featuring two doors with panels depicting figures surrounded by floral motifs, with false mullions and stiles featuring applied decorations of putti and plant garlands; the pediment is adorned with a coat of arms, flanked by two putti; two drawers at the bottom with handles carved in the shape of lion heads; the sides are inlaid with a design of a flower-filled urn, straight cornice, ball feet, 18th-century Holland. Dimensions: 215 x 209.5 x 82 cm. (As is, with damage and missing parts; various elements of the pediment need to be reattached)

Dealer

François de Bonfils

Generaliste

Mobile : 0608056451

22 Avenue d'Embeyres

Vayres 33870