

Louis Dage (1885-1963) Art Deco Glazed Ceramic Bowl With A Hazelnut Design

590 EUR

Signature : Louis DAGE (1885-1963)

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Ceramic

Width : 20

Description

Louis DAGE (1885-1963) Art Deco glazed ceramic bowl decorated with hazelnuts, circa 1930. Elegant ceramic bowl signed by Louis Dage, a leading figure in French ceramics during the interwar period. The piece features a naturalistic design of hazel branches adorned with leaves and fruits in slight relief, rendered in a delicate palette of greens, browns, and mauves on a mottled blue and cream background characteristic of the decorative trends of the era. The piece is enhanced by a beautiful copper-plated metal mount with a stylized plant motif forming two side handles. The quality of the enamel, the refinement of the decoration, and the combination with the original metal mount perfectly illustrate the Art Deco aesthetic of the years 1925-1935. Handwritten "Dage" signature on the

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

base. In very good condition. Original frame. A few fine firing cracks consistent with the piece's age. Dimensions: Width: 20 cm Height: approximately 7 cm Bibliography: Louis Dage (1885-1963) was one of the most renowned French ceramicists of his time. His works from the 1920s and 1930s, influenced by Art Deco, are highly sought after today for the richness of their glazes and the quality of their naturalistic decorations. French work, circa 1930.