A beautiful pair of Empire-style mahogany armchairs, featuring the elegant, understated, and architectural lines characteristic of the early 19th century. The curved armrests rest on supports carved with palmette motifs, while the rectangular backrests are topped with subtle molding featuring foliage motifs. The slightly saber-shaped front legs harmoniously complete the ensemble. The seats and backs are upholstered in petit point tapestry in shades of burgundy and gold, adorned with floral medallions and plant motifs inspired by the Neoclassical style.
