Description

An elegant pair of finely carved and gilded wooden wall sconces, made in Italy during the 19th century. They served as decorative consoles for displaying small objects, statuettes, or bouquets, while adding to the refinement of the interior décor. With their flowing forms, they feature a rich decoration of foliage scrolls and deeply openwork volutes, inspired by the Italian Baroque style. The sculpting, which is bold and dynamic, is highlighted by a beautiful antique gilding with warm tones, reflecting the craftsmanship of Italian workshops of the era. Their balanced proportions and highly decorative design allow them to blend seamlessly into both classic interiors and more eclectic decor. An alluring pair of interior architectural elements, both decorative and functional, evoking
