

Empire-style Mirror With A Triangular Pediment, 19th Century

490 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Mahogany

Width : 63

Height : 102

Description

Empire-style mirror with a triangular pediment, 19th century
Dimensions: Height: 102 cm Width: 63 cm
Charming Empire-style mirror in stained mahogany, topped by a triangular pediment inspired by ancient architecture. The design evokes a classical temple with its pilaster-style sides adorned with gilded bronze sconces featuring female busts with classical hairstyles. The pediment is adorned with a central gilded bronze motif depicting a laurel wreath within a diamond shape framed by arrows, while the lower crossbar features a bronze rosette. The bases of the pilasters are finished with stylized gilded bronze claws, reinforcing the neoclassical elegance of the piece. The mirror retains its original glass, which provides a beautiful reflection and contributes to the piece's authentic

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

character. Its harmonious dimensions make it suitable for placement above a console table or a fireplace, or as a decorative element in an entryway or living room. Period Second half of the 19th century. Style Empire. Materials Stained mahogany, gilded bronze, and glass. Condition Good overall condition. Some signs of use and slight wear consistent with its age. Well-preserved bronze fittings. A decorative piece showcasing fine craftsmanship.