

Large, Flat Louis XV-style Desk, Modeled After A Design By Charles Cressent, Featuring Marquetry

3 000 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Marquetry

Width : 172

Height : 82

Depth : 85

Description

Large Louis XV-style writing desk, modeled after a design by Charles Cressent, featuring marquetry and gilded bronze. Dimensions: Height: 82 cm Width: 172 cm Depth: 85 cm A significant Louis XV-style flat desk richly adorned with gilded bronze. The ornate front features three large drawers. The top features three sections upholstered in beige leather with a fine embossed pattern, framed by precious wood with scrollwork and marquetry. The quality of the ornamentation is remarkable: finials featuring female busts at the corners, clogs, drawer frames, drop handles, and a finely chiseled and gilded ingot mold. The curved legs end in bronze clogs. The back is also intricately carved, allowing the piece to be displayed in the center of a room. The overall design, the abundance of bronze elements, and

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

the quality of the wood are reminiscent of prestigious Parisian pieces from the late 19th or early 20th century, in the style of the great 18th-century cabinetmakers. Period Early 20th century. Style Louis XV

Rocaille. Materials precious woods (burl and curly grain), oak, gilded bronze, embossed and gilded leather. Condition Good overall condition. Some normal wear on the leather and slight marks on the wood. The gilding on the bronze pieces is well preserved.