Description

Louis XV-style Cabinet / Sideboard with Marquetry
Black marble top - late 19th century
An elegant sideboard crafted from precious woods and featuring geometric marquetry, opening with a belt drawer and two front doors. The front is adorned with a remarkable herringbone pattern of rosewood, accented by inlaid frames and contrasting moldings. The sides also feature meticulously finished wood that highlights the richness of the grain. The piece rests on four curved legs topped with bronze feet. It is topped with a molded black marble top that adds an extra touch of elegance. The gilded bronze lock plates, handles, and ornaments harmoniously complete the ensemble. Thanks to its compact size, this piece can serve as a side table, a small living room sideboard, a entryway console, or even a
