

Louis XV-style Ladies' Chest Of Drawers With Marquetry

550 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Marquetry

Width : 55

Height : 73

Depth : 33

Description

Louis XV-style Ladies' Chest of Drawers with Marquetry, high-quality 20th-century craftsmanship. Charming kidney-shaped ladies' chest of drawers in rosewood with geometric marquetry, resting on four elegant curved legs finished with gilded bronze feet. The top features a remarkable inlay design of butterfly wings, framed by a frieze and embellished with stylized spandrels. The front reveals an ingenious interior layout consisting of six drawers and compartments designed for sewing supplies, mail, or jewelry. A fabric-lined side drawer completes the set. The curved sides are made of rosewood arranged in a herringbone pattern. The lock and keyholes are adorned with finely chased gilded bronze. This elegant ladies' table is a refined decorative piece, ideal as a coffee table, jewelry

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

cabinet, or small side desk. Condition In good overall condition. The structure is sound and stable. Very beautiful marquetry. Shows signs of normal wear, including scratches, wear on the varnish, and minor historical imperfections on the tabletop and edges, as visible in the photographs. Interior is complete with all drawers. Dimensions Height: 73 cm Width: 55 cm Depth: 33 cm