Description

Christ in the Garden of Gethsemane This religious scene depicts Christ in the Garden of Gethsemane, during his agony preceding the Passion. Kneeling in the twilight, hands clasped, Jesus receives a visit from an angel presenting him with the chalice, a symbol of his upcoming sacrifice. In the background, the sleeping apostles reinforce the sense of solitude and contemplation that emanates from the composition. The work captivates with its meditative atmosphere and its chiaroscuro inspired by Baroque painting. A warm light highlights Christ's face and the angelic figure, creating a striking contrast with the surrounding shadows.
