Description

Pair of Saint-Clément glazed ceramic candleholders France, 1960s-1970s Original pair of glazed ceramic candleholders in shades of brown, produced by the Saint-Clément factory -Clément. Each candleholder takes the stylized form of a female figure with raised arms holding two small bowls, in a style inspired by folk art and the Scandinavian and modernist decorative designs of the second half of the 20th century. The molded decoration highlights the details of the costume, the herringbone pattern on the dress, and the facial features, enhanced by a beautiful caramel-brown glaze with darker undertones. Their graphic silhouette and sculptural presence make them particularly sought-after decorative objects. Condition Very good overall condition. Slight signs of use and
