Description

Pair of wall consoles with cherub heads, carved and painted wood, Baroque style

DescriptionAn elegant pair of carved wooden wall consoles, adorned with cherub heads in high relief surrounded by scrollwork and foliage motifs. The faces feature a beautiful dark brown patina that contrasts with the golden paint highlighting the carvings. The design, inspired by the Baroque repertoire, evokes architectural ornamentation and religious motifs from the 17th and 18th centuries. These consoles can be used as decorative wall accents or incorporated into a classic interior design project. They captivate with the expressive quality of the faces and their striking decorative presence. The set features an antique patina as well as signs of wear and evidence of past wood-boring insects on the
