Description

A small Dutch painting depicting a charming scene with a lighthearted message: "Futile Resistance," in which an older man is seen making advances toward a younger woman, who is trying to resist while spilling a jug of wine, with a small dog barking at her feet, the scene unfolding under the indulgent gaze of a man smoking a pipe. On the right, a four-poster bed is visible, and on the left, a maid is entering through a door leading from a well-lit room. A large mirror hangs above the scene. The details are exquisitely fine, much like a miniature. In a private collection; the original varnish has yellowed slightly, with a few small vertical chips in the paint on the left. Beautiful 19th-century frame made of wood and gilded stucco. A charming Dutch painting in the Baroque style
