Description

Germany: Set of three Napoleonic figures in polychrome porcelain 19th century - Height: 23 cmA charming set of three glazed porcelain figurines depicting characters from the Napoleonic era. Each figure rests on a base bearing the imperial monogram "N" surrounded by a gilded laurel wreath. The set includes: A Guard officer in full blue dress uniform. A figure in a pink tunic and a richly decorated bicorne hat. A grenadier or infantryman in a green and white uniform wearing a characteristic cap. The figurines feature vibrant polychrome decoration accented with gilding. Their meticulous craftsmanship and historical subject matter make this a delightful decorative set for a display case, a cabinet of curiosities, or a collection dedicated to the First Empire.
