Description

Art Deco faceted crystal decanter with silver mount, circa 1930. Elegant Art Deco decanter in thick crystal with a radiating geometric design. The polygonal body features remarkable cutting and molding, creating the play of light characteristic of the aesthetic of the 1930s. It is adorned with a silver neck mount bearing hallmarks and silversmith's marks. Its original cut-crystal stopper harmoniously echoes the architectural lines of the piece. Very fine craftsmanship, reminiscent of French productions from the Art Deco era. A refined piece intended for an elegant table or a liquor set. Period: circa 1930. Style: Art Deco. Material: crystal and silver. Condition: good overall condition, slight signs of wear on the mount, original stopper. Origin: France
