Description

Burma, mid-20th century, a very beautiful loom pulley carved from a single piece of wood depicting Garuda, a mythical giant eagle that protects humans from evil spirits. Garuda is also the emblem of Indonesia. He is depicted standing atop the pulley, hands clasped. A beautifully crafted piece that captures the beauty of the details. Dimensions: Height 22.8 (cm). The scale reference in the last photograph is a small model of a lighter from a well-known brand. In good condition, aside from slight, normal wear and tear that does not affect the item. We take special care with our packaging by using optimal protective materials. Shipping includes insurance. Shipping rates: Metropolitan France: 22 euros; European Union countries and Switzerland: 28 euros; Eastern European and Maghreb countries: 45
