Description

An elegant oval-shaped parlor stool made of molded wood and originally gilded, resting on four tapered, fluted legs characteristic of the Louis XVI style. The apron is adorned with a heart-and-ray motif and carved rosettes with connecting dice. The seat retains its original upholstery, covered in a floral fabric showing signs of wear. A decorative piece that can serve as an occasional stool, a dressing table seat, or a footrest. Shipping within mainland France: EUR90. Contact us for more information.
