Description

A pair of antique gilded bronze wall sconces with two lights, in the Louis XVI style, adorned with remarkable, finely chiseled ram's heads. The lamp arms are adorned with acanthus leaves and volutes, while the lamp heads feature a decoration of gadroons and pearls. The shield-shaped bases are decorated with a radiating motif centered on a ram's head rendered with great attention to detail. The quality of the chiseling and the richness of the decoration attest to the meticulous craftsmanship of the late 19th century. The wall sconces bear the stamped inscription "Modèle Déposé - France & Étranger," They retain their beautiful original gilding. The ram motif is directly inspired by the neoclassical decorative repertoire of the late 18th century. Dimensions: Height: 21 cm Width: 23 cm In very good condition..
