Description

Large dining table made of solid mahogany from Maison Jeanselme in Paris. This Napoleon III-era table is nearly round in shape and offers numerous extension options; the central leg, which ends in four scroll-style console feet, splits open to reveal a central baluster that supports the tabletop, allowing for the insertion of extension leaves. When extended, the table can seat eighteen people. A single small mahogany extension leaf is available; additional extension leaves must be provided. Maison Janselme was founded in 1824 and served as a supplier to all royal families. This table is typical of the Napoleon III period, circa 1860. We have eight chairs that originally surrounded this table (price upon request) DIMENSIONS: 1.60 m x 1.55 m and 0.71 m high. Approximately 4.20m with the
