

Bronze Plaque Depicting The Profile Of Claudio Venezia, Early 17th Century

870 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Width : 8,3 cm

Height : 10,8 cm

Description

Venetian school, first half of the 17th century; a slightly convex oval bronze plaque depicting the profile of Emperor Claudius, with a border featuring a band of coats of arms and trophies, lion protomes on the axes, and the inscription "CLAVDIVS CAES" in raised letters. This plaque is the third in the series known as "The Twelve Caesars," belonging to a reissue--modified by the addition of the frame--of the original created around the mid-16th century in the Padua area.

Dealer

Antichità Poliarts

Antiques irons, doors and high-end objects

Tel : +39(0) 286 452 227

Mobile : +39 3333055542

Via vigevano 33

Milano 20144